

Diversions Courses – Clients Frequently Asked Questions

We strongly advise you to read the following information before contacting the NDORS (National Driver Offender Retraining Scheme) Team; our contact details are at the end of this document.

What types of courses are there?

In Lancashire we provide the following courses:

1. Speed Awareness (£80) - 4 hour interactive classroom based driver education package. The course covers why people speed, what difference speed makes, what could happen if you speed, how to recognise the speed limit, hazard perception and defensive driving strategies.
2. Motorway Awareness (£80) – 3 ¼ hour interactive classroom based driver education package. This course is aimed at drivers who have been caught committing an offence on a SMART motorway, which is a motorway that uses active traffic management techniques to actively manage the flow of traffic. Raising awareness of the appropriate speeds and lane use and improving driving skills.
3. What's Driving Us (£80) – 4 hours interactive classroom based session. The aim of the course is to produce safer more responsible attitudes towards driving and to increase motivation to drive with consideration for other road users.
4. Safe and Considerate Driving (£140) - full day course interactive classroom session followed by on-road session delivered on a 2:1 ratio. The aim is to raise awareness on the major causes of road crashes; how stress, fatigue, attitudes and behaviour affect safe driving; to improve the understanding of appropriate speeds, hazard recognition and defensive driving methods and to be self-critical on own driving errors and improving driving skills.
5. RIDE (£80) - 7 hour interactive classroom based session. Designed as an intervention for motorcyclists and addresses the behaviour of those whose riding could be described as thrill seeking and also those who by the very nature of their riding could be defined as anti-social or careless. Can also be used for motorcyclists demonstrating careless riding that has led to a collision.

Do I have to complete my course within 28 days?

No, you are required to book your course within 28 days of receipt of the conditional offer letter. Your course needs to be completed within the time imposed by the referring Police Force; Lancashire Constabulary is within 5 months of the offence date.

Do I need my driving licence?

You are required to produce photographic identification e.g. photo card licence at the start of the course. If you hold an old style paper driving licence, you will need to bring some other form of photographic identification such as a passport.

For the Safe and Considerate Driving course which has a practical on-road element, you must produce a valid driving licence and show it to the instructor in order to complete the course. Checks will be conducted in the week prior to your course to confirm your entitlement to drive. If you have any concerns about your eligibility to drive, please contact the NDORS Team. An eyesight test will be carried out prior to the session, if you wear corrective eyewear for driving these must be worn on the day. If you fail the eyesight test you will not have successfully completed the course, you will need to contact the NDORS Team to discuss your options.

If I opt to take the course, do I still have to pay the fine and get penalty points?

No, the courses are an alternative to prosecution; providing you successfully complete the course the police will not take any further action in respect of the matter.

Who runs the courses?

In Lancashire, our courses are delivered by experienced Approved Driving Instructors and classroom trainers. There is no police officer involvement.

No, however you will be expected to make a positive contribution to the course and demonstrate a willingness to improve your driving skills.

your options, re-booking may incur an administration fee or being prosecuted for the original offence.

How do I re-arrange or cancel my course?

Please contact the NDORS Team and we may be able to accommodate your request. Course dates will only be re-arranged a maximum of 3 times and administrative charges may be incurred.

Please note that cancelling your course may result in you being prosecuted for the original offence.

Re-arranging your course at short notice might incur an administration fee. If you have a valid reason for not being able to attend, you may be asked for additional paperwork which evidences this and a partial or full refund may be granted, dependant of your individual circumstances. Valid reasons do not include; lack of child care provision, a pets death, being invited for an interview, booking a holiday or clashes with your personal diary or work commitments. This course is offered as an alternative to prosecution for the original offence.

I've tried to re-arrange myself on-line, it won't let me do it

I've missed my course, what should I do?
